Plastics Europe Statement on the War in Ukraine

As the war in Ukraine enters its 20th day, it is truly shocking to see its devastating effects on millions of innocent civilians, including children. Plastics Europe and its members stand united to promote democracy, solidarity and peace in these extremely difficult times for the Ukrainian people.

Some of Plastics Europe member companies are donating targeted funds to aid charitable agencies to help the affected communities by this humanitarian emergency and the neighboring countries assisting the refugees.

As an essential industry, Plastics Europe members are working hard to ensure continuity of supply for the other industrial sectors and people.

Plastics Europe supports the sanctions Europe put in place.

Together with its members, Plastics Europe continues to monitor closely the unfolding of this crisis whose overall impact on the plastics manufactures is difficult to assess at this moment in time.
